

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

by Edward M. Gramlich and Bengt-Christer Ysander 9

PART I UNITED STATES

Excessive Government Spending in the U.S.: Facts and Theories

by Edward M. Gramlich, University of Michigan 29

Median Voter Models and the Growth of Government Services

by Saul H. Hymans, University of Michigan 75

Fiscal Limitations: An Assessment of the U.S. Experience

by Wallace E. Oates, University of Maryland 91

Pricing and Privatization of Public Services

by George E. Peterson, Urban Institute 137

PART II GREAT BRITAIN

Fiscal Containment and Local Government Finance in the U.K.

by Peter M. Jackson, University of Leicester 175

Control of Local Authority Expenditure – the Use of Cash Limits

by Noel P. Hepworth, The Chartered Institute of Public Finance and Accountancy 229

PART III SWEDEN

Central Control of the Local Government Sector in Sweden

by Richard Murray, The Swedish Agency for Administrative Development 295

Local Authorities, Economic Stability and the Efficiency of Fiscal Policy

by Bengt-Christer Ysander, University of Uppsala and IUI, and Tomas Nordström, IUI 347