| FOREWORD | 1 |
| CHAPTER 1. BACKGROUND, OBJECT AND OUTLINE OF THE STUDY | 3 |
| Economic growth and change | 3 |
| Mergers in historical perspective | 6 |
| Motives and aims of the present study | 14 |
| Outline of the study | 17 |
| CHAPTER 2. MERGERS AND OTHER COMBINATIONS IN SWEDEN DURING THE POSTWAR PERIOD: DEFINITIONS, SOURCES AND PRESENTATION OF THE MERGER DATA | 20 |
| Definitions | 20 |
| The firm | 20 |
| Swedish and foreign firms | 23 |
| Industrial firms | 23 |
| Combinations | 24 |
| Some typical cases of combinations | 31 |
| Dating the combinations | 35 |
| Method of data collecting and sources | 37 |
| Method | 37 |
| Sources | 40 |
| Presentation of the empirical data | 47 |
| Survey of the development of combinations, 1946-70 | 47 |
| Types of combinations | 55 |
| Distribution of mergers by industry | 60 |
| Examples of major mergers | 68 |
| Merger frequencies in different size groups | 71 |
| Types of integration | 73 |
| CHAPTER 3. THE MERGER TREND IN SOME OTHER COUNTRIES | 77 |
| Introduction | 77 |
| General survey of the merger trend abroad | 78 |
| The Scandinavian countries | 79 |
| Great Britain | 82 |

| CHAPTER 4. CAUSES OF CORPORATE MERGERS - A BASIC THEORETICAL FRAMEWORK | 103 |
| Assumptions about firm behavior | 103 |
| Prerequisites for mergers | 107 |
| The value gap: a fundamental merger condition | 107 |
| Equalizing the value gap in the case of perfect competition | 108 |
| Causes of the value gap | 110 |
| Value gaps due to incomplete information and different rate-of-return expectations | 110 |
| Value gaps from coordination gains | 115 |
| Determining the prices of firms | 119 |
| Summary | 124 |
| CHAPTER 5. CAUSES OF CORPORATE MERGERS - FORMULATION OF HYPOTHESES | 127 |
| Introduction | 127 |
| Can the value-gap theory be proved? | 127 |
| Coordination gains from mergers | 128 |
| Improvements in efficiency | 129 |
| Stability advantages | 142 |
| Financial coordination gains | 146 |
| "Monopoly" profits | 148 |
| Coordination gains owing to legal and institutional factors | 156 |
| Mergers without coordination gains | 158 |
| Merger behavior under deviations from the profit-maximization assumption | 165 |

| Supplementary data from the firm analysis | 225 |
| Summary of the firm analysis | 227 |
| CHAPTER 7. THE ROLE OF MERGERS IN THE GROWTH AND PROFITABILITY OF LISTED SWEDISH MANUFACTURING FIRMS | 229 |
| Introduction | 229 |
| Notes on the growth of the firm | 231 |
| Internal and external expansion - definitions and problems of measurement and method | 233 |
| Definitions and selection of variables | 233 |
| Methods of estimation | 235 |
| Illustration of the methods of calculations | 241 |
| The role of external expansion for the postwar size and growth of listed firms | 244 |
| Sample of firms investigated | 244 |
| Year-by-year significance of the mergers (method 1) | 249 |
| The contribution of mergers to the size of listed firms (method 2) | 255 |
| The contribution of mergers to the long-run growth of listed firms (method 3) | 258 |
| Merger propensity and growth rate | 262 |
| Merger propensity and profitability | 269 |
| Summary | 278 |

LIST OF FIGURES

| | |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 1. Outline of the process for a combination (Merger by amalgamation) | 38 |
| 2. Number of mergers and number of employees in merged firms, 1946-69 | 52 |
| 3. Share of merged firms in total employment and value of shipments, 1946-69 | 54 |
| 4. Schema for classifying mergers between Swedish and foreign firms | 58 |
| 5. Number of combinations in Norwegian industry, 1960-69 | 80 |
| 6. Number of major mergers in Great Britain and the United States, 1887-1904 | 83 |
| 7. Number of mergers in American industry, 1895-1968 | 93 |
| 8. Share of acquired firms in the total assets of American industry, 1921-33 and 1953-69 | 94 |
| 9. Merger frequencies in the United States, 1948-68 | 95 |
| 10. Assets of acquired firms and new investments in manufacturing in the United States, 1948-68 | 96 |
| 11. U.S. mergers by type, 1948-68 | 97 |
| 12. Number of domestic and foreign mergers in Canada, 1945-61 | 100 |
| 13. Appraisal relations in a firm transaction with merger conditions fulfilled (selfassessments of the parties) | 121 |
| 14. Appraisal relations in a firm transaction (parties assessment of one another) | 122 |
| 15. Illustration of methods used to calculate the role of mergers in the growth of a firm (AB Bahco), 1951-68 | 243 |

LIST OF TABLES

| | |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 1. Combinations in Swedish industry, 1946-70 | 49 |
| 2. Weighted merger activity in industry for each year of the period 1946-69 | 51 |
| 3. Number of combinations in industry, 1946-70, by type and year | 57 |
| 4. Number of mergers in industry, 1946-69 | 63 |
| 5. Merger intensity in 17 manufacturing industries, 1946-69 . | 65 |
| 6. Merger frequencies in 17 manufacturing industries, 1946-69 | 69 |
| 7. Examples of major industrial mergers, 1946-69 | 70 |
| 8. Merger frequencies for different size groups of firms . . | 72 |
| 9. Number of combinations in Finnish industry, 1961-69 . . . | 81 |
| 10. Merger development in Great Britain, 1954-68 | 84 |
| 11. Number of mergers and pools in the manufacturing sectors of EEC countries, 1961-69 | 87 |
| 12. Acquired firms in the United States with assets of at least 250 million dollars, 1948-68 | 98 |
| 13. Values of variables for 34 industries entering into the regression calculations | 182 |
| 14. Correlation matrix for all eight variables in the regression calculations | 189 |
| 15. Regression coefficients for merger frequencies and seven explanatory variables | 191 |
| 16. Correlations between merger frequencies and seven explanatory variables | 196 |
| 17. Profitability of acquired firms | 211 |
| 18. Profitability distribution for acquired firms | 212 |
| 19. Profitability of acquired firms in the year preceding merger year | 213 |
| 20. Liquidity of acquired and all firms in the year preceding merger year | 215 |
| 21. Liquidity of acquired and all firms in the year preceding merger year, size groups | 216 |
| 22. Number of firms acquired during 1969 with lower variable values than comparable firms | 218 |
| 23. Expansion rates of acquired firms and all firms | 219 |
| 24. Solvency of acquired and all firms in the year preceding merger year | 221 |

| | |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 25. Solvency of acquired and all firms in the year preceding merger year | 221 |
| 26. Age distribution for principal owners of sold firms, 1961-69 | 223 |
| 27. Profitability, liquidity, solvency and expansion rate of the acquired firms, by types of merger | 225 |
| 28. Merger data for 62 listed manufacturing and construction firms | 246 |
| 29. Role of external expansion in the annual growth of listed industrial firms, 1946-68 (method 1) | 251 |
| 30. Role of external expansion in the annual growth of listed industrial firms, 1960-68 (method 2) | 251 |
| 31. Total, external and internal annual sales growth of listed industrial firms, 1948-68 (method 1) | 253 |
| 32. Total, external and internal annual employment growth of listed industrial firms, 1948-68 (method 1) | 254 |
| 33. Share of mergers in the size of listed industrial firms in 1968 (method 2) | 257 |
| 34. Significance of mergers for the 25 most active acquiring firms in the U.S., 1961-68 | 261 |
| 35. Shares of mergers in the growth of listed industrial firms, 1950 (approx.) - 1968 (method 3) | 262 |
| 36. Expansion rates of firms with varying merger activity (number of mergers), 1946-68 | 263 |
| 37. Expansion rates of firms with varying merger activity (share of external expansion). | 265 |
| 38. Correlation between expansion rate and merger activity . . | 266 |
| 39. Expansion rates of firms with varying merger activity in metalworking-engineering and the forest industry | 267 |
| 40. Correlation between expansion rates and merger activity in metalworking-engineering and the forest industry | 268 |
| 41. Movement of stock prices for firms with varying merger activity (number of mergers), 1955-68 | 273 |
| 42. Movement of share prices for firms with varying merger activity (share of external expansion), 1955-68 | 274 |
| 43. Movement of stock prices for firms with varying merger activity (number of mergers) in metalworking-engineering and the forest industry, 1955-68 | 275 |
| 44. Movement of stock prices for firms with varying merger activity (share of external expansion) in metalworking-engineering and the forest industry, 1955-68 | 276 |

| | | |
|-----|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 45. | Association between increase in stock prices and merger activity (external expansion share), 1955-68 | 276 |
| 46. | Association between increase in stock prices and merger activity (external expansion share) in metalworking-engineering and the forest industry, 1955-68 | 277 |
