Foreword	7
Part I Introduction:
Integrating Theory and Measurement	11
B. Bergmann – G. Eliasson – G. Orcutt
Part II The U.S. Transactions Model
II:1 The Transactions Model of the U.S. Economy	23
Barbara R. Bergmann, University of Maryland
II:2 Banks and Financial Intermediaries in the Micro- simulated Transactions Model of the U.S. Economy ...	55
Robert L. Bennett, University of Maryland
Appendix: Performance of the Transactions Model: 1973–1975 ...	83
Barbara R. Bergmann and Robert L. Bennett, University of Maryland
Part III The Urban Institute – Yale Model
III:1 Hypothesis Formation, Testing and Estimation for Microanalytical Modeling	99
Guy H. Orcutt, Yale University
III:2 Microanalytical Modeling and Simulation	121
Guy Orcutt and Amihai Glazer, Yale University
Part IV The Swedish Model
IV:1 A Micro Simulation Model of a National Economy	179
Gunnar Eliasson, IUI
IV:2 On Estimation and Other Problems of Statistical Inference in the Micro Simulation Approach	261
Anders Klevmarcken, University of Gothenburg and IUI
IV:3 Stepwise Parameter Estimation of a Micro Simulation Model	269
Gunnar Eliasson, IUI and Gösta Olavi, IBM Sweden
IV:4 How Does Inflation Affect Growth? – Experiments on the Swedish Micro-to-Macro Model	277
Gunnar Eliasson, IUI
IV:5 Technical Change and Longevity of Capital in a Swedish Simulation Model	299
Bo Carlsson, IUI and Gösta Olavi, IBM Sweden

IV:6	Expectations, Cyclical Fluctuations and Growth – Experiments on the Swedish Model	309
	Jim Albrecht, University of Columbia
IV:7	The Market Oriented Inter-Industry Stock and Flow Data Aggregation Scheme Used in the Swedish Model	335
	Louise Ahlström, IUI
Part V Other Models
V:1	Is There an Efficient Level of Unemployment? Simulation Experiments on a Labor Market Model	349
	Donald A. Nichols, University of Wisconsin
V:2	GDM, A Computerized System for Simulating Micro- Oriented Macro-Economic Models	365
	Ebbe Yndgaard, University of Aarhus
Part VI Work in Progress
VI:1	A Sociopolitical Decision and Indicator System for the Federal Republic of Germany – An Overview of SPES	377
	Ralph Brennecke, Johann Wolfgang Goethe Universität, Frankfurt/M
VI:2	The Swarthmore Product Allocation Simulation Model – A Report on SPASM	385
	Frederic L. Pryor, Swarthmore College
Part VII General Discussion		391
	List of Participants	405
	Conference program	408
