

Contents

Notes on Contributors	vii
Preface	xv
Overview	xix
PART 1: General Analysis of Executive Compensation within Corporate Governance Systems
1. Corporate Governance and Executive Compensation: An Institutional Overview Söhnke M. Bartram and Idlan Zakaria	3
2. European Integration and Executive Compensation Structures: Results from Bargaining and Merger Activity John Knopf and John Teall	37
3. The Rise of an International Market for Executive Labour Winfried Ruigrok and Peder Greve	53
4. Executive Incentive Compensation and Economic Prosperity Cynthia J. Campbell, Rosita P. Chang, Robert Doktor, Jack C. De Jong, Jr., Lars Oxelheim and Trond Randøy	79
PART 2: Incentive Effects of Executive Compensation Structures
5. Banking Mergers and Acquisitions in Europe: Performance and Executive Compensation Rym Ayadi and Francesca Arnaboldi	97
6. Intangible Assets, Agency Costs, and International Dissimilarities in the Structure of Executive Pay Philipp N. Baecker, Gunnar Grass and Ulrich Hommel	127

vi Contents

7. Performance Evaluation and European Asset Markets Natacha Valla	141
8. Earnings Management and CEO Turnovers Kristian Bengtsson, Clas Bergström and Max Nilsson	157
9. European Corporate Governance Guidelines and CEO Pay — The Case of Norway and Sweden Lars Oxelheim and Trond Randøy	183
10. The Use of Incentive Pay in Divisonalised Firms: A Case Study of Two Global Manufacturing Companies Ted Lindblom, Gert Sandahl and Stefan Sjögren	201
11. Executive Compensation and Macroeconomic Fluctuations Lars Oxelheim, Clas Wihlborg and Jianhua Zhang	229
PART 3: Country Studies
12. Compensation of Executives in Denmark: Performance, Corporate Governance or Rent Extraction? Ken L. Bechmann	261
13. CEO Compensation, Firm Size and Firm Performance: Evidence from Finland Mikko Mäkinen	283
14. CEO Cash Compensation and Ownership Structure: The Effect of Family Control on the Pay–Performance Relation in Sweden Carl Orelund	315
15. The Introduction of Long-Term Incentive Programmes for Managers in Germany: Efficiency or Rent-Seeking? Christian Harm and Karl-Friedrich Raible	349
16. An Empirical Analysis of the Compensation of Management Boards Georg Stadtmann and Markus Wissmann	373
Index	397